

Assistant Prof. Dr. Chanuantong Tanasugarn is currently working as a Deputy Dean in International Relations, Faculty of Graduate Studies, Mahidol University, and a Secretary of the Local Organizing Committee, the 6th QSAPPLE Conference and Exhibition 2010.

She has earned her Master of Public Health (M.P.H) since 1983 in Health Service Administration, University of Pittsburgh, USA, and her Doctor of Public Health (Dr.P.H.) in 1987 from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. In 2000, she received a Certificate in Management of International Public Health (MIPH), CDC Atlanta, USA and since then she is served as the team leader in offering a Certificate in Sustainable Management Development Program authorized by the CDC Atlanta for Thai public health middle managers. Regarding health service management experience, she has been a member of the Hospital Surveyor focusing in Health Promotion Quality Standards in 2001-2005 and during 2002 – 2004 she had also served as a Health Promoting Hospital Accreditation Committee Member for the Hospital Accreditation Institute, Thailand.